Anti-Racism Live on The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, 21 March 2024

Anti-Racism Live 2024 will once again bring together international figures, activists, actors and musicians, for a global digital experience to raise further awareness of the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. The event will inform, inspire and engage individuals to manifest action for a more just, equal, diverse and inclusive world. This day is all about coming together and reconciling our differences, so it is the perfect moment to launch a 6-months countdown to Peace Day 21 September 2024.

‘You cannot have peace one day if there is no justice, equality, diversity and inclusion.’

Jeremy Gilley

OBJECTIVES OF THE DAY

- Raise awareness of 21 March, the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination
- Facilitate conversations that lead to a more just, equal, diverse and inclusive world
- Set out practical action points to help individuals and organisations engage with anti-racism
- Create an important moment to build bridges in our communities and counteract this divide in societies that we are seeing as a consequence of the recent wars.

BACKGROUND OF THE DAY

- The United Nations General Assembly proclaimed the Day in 1966, calling on the international community to redouble its efforts to eliminate all forms of racial discrimination.
- The Day commemorates the lives of those who died to fight for democracy and equal human rights for all on 21 March 1960 in Sharpeville, South Africa.
- The global framework for the elimination of racism is guided by the International Convention on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, the Durban Declaration and programme of action.
- The action in the lead up to and on the day promotes a global culture of Tolerance, Equality and Anti-discrimination.
- The Day also provides an opportunity to focus our attention on the International Decade for the People of African Descent and its themes Recognition, Justice and Development.
